Deacon Kurt Lucas, Presenter

Despite the fact that the Church teaches that “access to sacred Scripture ought to be wide open to the Christian faithful,” many Catholics feel intimidated, skeptical, or even a bit fearful to begin a serious study of the Bible and don’t know how to start. Catholics are taking to Scripture in greater numbers. As they do, they make the surprising discovery that the Bible is a thoroughly Catholic book!

With The Light and the Lens participants learn:

- * how revelation has been handed down in both written and unwritten form: Scripture and Tradition,
- * where we got the Bible,
- * how the covenants in the Old Testament lead us to the new and everlasting covenant of the New Testament – Jesus Christ,
- * about the role of Scripture in the Church and guidelines for sensible scripture reading, and that
- * Scripture is vital to our life as disciples of Jesus Christ.

No Cost - All Are Welcome!

Pre-registration is not necessary but appreciated to help plan materials and space.

*Meets the requirement for 3 hours of Catechist Certification in Theological Content
