Sacraments at the Service of Communion: "Holy Orders and Matrimony, are directed towards the salvation of others; if they contribute as well to personal salvation, it is through service to others that they do so. They confer a particular mission in the Church and serve to build up the People of God." (CCC, 1534) Join us as Dr. Fastiggi provides both a theological and practical look at these two sacraments.

Dr. Robert Fastiggi is the Associate Professor of Systematic Theology at Sacred Heart Major Seminary in Detroit.

Prior to Sacred Heart, he taught at St. Edward's University in Texas from 1985-1999. Dr. Fastiggi received his A.B. in Religion (Summa Cum Laude) at Dartmouth College and his M.A. in Theology at Fordham University. He also received his Ph.D. in Historical Theology at Fordham University.

He has published and edited several books, including What the Church Teaches About Sex: God's Plan for Happiness, and he serves as editor of the yearly supplements to the New Catholic Encyclopedia.

Originally from New Jersey, Dr. Fastiggi now resides in Michigan with his wife Kathleen Marie and their three children, Mary, Anthony and Clare.
