
2010 Great Lakes Catholic Encampment

Sunday (7/25/10) – Saturday (7/31/10)

Rota-Kiwan Reservation

Kalamazoo, Michigan

100 YEARS OF SCOUTING ~ ~ ~ 2000 YEARS OF FAITH

A special session of Summer Camp designed for Catholic scouts, leaders, and parents but open to anyone of any faith denomination.

Register as a troop (sponsored by a Catholic church or not) or as individual scouts (or leaders/parents) who wish to attend as part of a provisional troop.

The session will include all the features of Rota-Kiwan's traditional summer camp experience.

There will be additional special programs, features, and Catholic faith experiences:

- ✚ Daily themes focusing on the Seven Sacraments
- ✚ Daily Mass, daily prayer, celebration of Reconciliation, and opportunities for personal reflection
- ✚ A volleyball tournament of "scouts vs. seminarians" - who will win?
- ✚ Opportunities for scouts and troops to work towards Catholic religious awards
- ✚ Training available for adults to become counselors for Catholic religious awards
- ✚ Fr. Richard Altine, Diocesan Scout Chaplain, in residence all week

Safety of the scouts will be ensured:

- All adults attending camp must be in compliance with the Diocese of Kalamazoo Child Protection Policy.
- Attendance at a Protecting God's Children for Adults awareness session, and successful completion of a diocesan criminal background check, is MANDATORY.

The cost is not finalized yet, but will be released as soon as possible.

For the most current information about the encampment, add your name to our e-mail distribution list, and check the website (www.2010catholicencampment.org) regularly.

This encampment is a program of the Diocese of Kalamazoo Catholic Committee on Scouting and the Southwest Michigan Council of the Boy Scouts of America.
