Bishop Bradley releases statement on shooting in southern California

KALAMAZOO, Mich.: (November 8, 2018): Bishop Paul J. Bradley released the following statement today calling for prayers for the victims of the November 7th attack in the Borderline Bar and Grill in Thousand Oaks, Cal.:

“Once again our hearts are broken by last night’s mass killing of 12 innocent young people, including one law enforcement officer, in southern California. May God receive those killed into His Merciful Arms, and give comfort to their families and all those traumatized by this violence.”
